

GreenLife accepts:

- Clothing, shoes and boots
- Accessories – hats, gloves, scarves, purses
- Collectibles, antiques and other giftware
- Domestic – linens, curtains, blankets
- Electronics – must be small/medium and in good condition
- Food – must be nonperishable and before expiration date
- Jewelry
- Home décor – must be small/medium and in good condition
- Housewares – dishes, glassware, utensils, lamps, small appliances
- Media – books, records, CDs, DVDs, video games
- Sporting goods – must be small/medium and in good condition
- Toys – must be small/medium and in good condition

GreenLife does not accept:

- Clothing that is heavily stained or wet
- Building materials – lights, ceiling fans, blinds, paint, etc.
- Cleaning supplies – mops, buckets, chemicals, etc.
- Furniture – tables, chairs, mattresses, dressers, bed frames, etc.
(we may accept unique items in good condition depending on space, please call or message first)
- Items subject to recall – cribs, car seats, etc.
- Items with filling – pillows, sleeping bags, comforters, etc.
- Large items – encyclopedias, textbooks, electronics, exercise equipment, appliances, toys, stuffed animals, etc.
- Weapons – guns, bows, ammunition, etc.
- Anything broken that should be thrown out or recycled

GreenLife reserves the right to accept or decline all items depending on our current inventory.